

Duke&Kay has become the sole Italian member of the Global Resource Management network

The Global Interim Management Group

We are proud to announce that Duke&Kay is an official partner of GLOBALISE – The Global Interim Management Group. Globalise is the largest international alliance of Interim Management companies.

Globalise was founded in 2015 by three leading Interim Management Companies: Atreus in Germany, Patina Solutions in the United States and Valtus in France.

The members of Globalise are interim management firms of many different countries all over the world. The main objective of Globalise is to provide its multinational clients the professional resources and its proved expertise to implement projects of turnaround, change management, interim management and performance improvement worldwide.

We Professionals of Duke&Kay as partner of Globalise now can offer our clients the most appropriate expertise and resources and offer our Interim Managers more interesting international opportunities.

Learn more about Globalise and its members: www.globalise.com